Bellevue Three Centuries Medicine Mayhem

David Oshinsky's wonderful book Bellevue: Three Centuries of Medicine and Mayhem at America's Most Storied Hospital is more than a history lesson of an iconic New York City institution. It's a chronicle of the city of New York itself. And that might not be going far enough, it's the tale of the United States as well, all told through the events happening at the oldest public hospital ...

Review: 'Bellevue' Celebrates a Hospital Not Crazy, but ...

As you noted, Gabe, Bellevue is a segue into the history of American medicine, immigration, public health, and epidemic disease. And ultimately, I think, of America, itself. With such a long history-Bellevue has been around for close to three centuries-you have to do a bit of cherry picking to determine not only what is of particular interest to you, but also what will drive the story ...
