Journey Rock Dungeons Dragons Module

1984's Journey to The Rock is your averagely terrible hump across a map gird encountering random wilderness hellions and battling with the elements. When D&D modules finally made it out of the dungeons they spent years treating wilderness adventures like dungeon adventures with weather. Basic D&D modules, like this one, were particularly guilty of offering gaming experiences like the part in an old computer RPG when you had to travel on the big map. Remember how occasionally your little dot ...

B8 - Journey To The Rock - what can I say. This is another standalone adventure. And as written this one can definitely be finished in a single session. The characters get to choose one of three possible paths - which I personally never like. Why should the character only get the benefit of a portion of the module? So that isn't how I have run the module. I combine all the paths into a single ...
