Who Should Use This Text Selling Destinations is a geography book for those who sell, or who plan to sell, places. At first glance, it may seem to be primarily a study or reference work for travel counselors, and it is certainly that. But it will prove equally useful to you even if you're in another segment of the travel industry, for two reasons. First, you need to know how travel agents deal with geography, because you depend on their ability to sell. Second, everyone in the travel ...
