Hanover Military Records 1514

Military records, 1514-1866, for the former Kingdom of Hanover and its predecessor areas are a detailed body of records. While the originals sit in an archive in Germany, microfilmed images are available to researchers through the Family History Library (FHL), family history centers, and affiliates around the world. Hanover's military records are largely untapped by many researchers because until now, English-language finding aids were non-existent. Existing guides contained no cross ...

Hanover military records for the former Kingdom of Hanover and its predecessor areas span the years 1514-1866. They are a detailed body of records. They include service information for all ranks of soldiers, not just the officers. Conscription lists show men who were identified as candidates to serve, but who may not have actually served. This latter group may be used as a substitute when baptism records are not available for an area. Following are some lists of records and what ...

This secured a points record of 49 for Die Roten in the Bundesliga, thus ending them in eighth place. The 2008-09 season started undesirably for Hannover with losses. However, it looked to have been rectified with a 5-1 thrashing of Borussia Mönchengladbach, a shock 1-0 win over Bayern Munich at home, which had not occurred for 20 years, and a thrilling 3-0 victory over Hamburger SV .
